REAL ESTATE

Is the best of investments. No city in the world has so bright a future as Honolulu, and if a person uses judgement in buying he should be able to provide well for the future if he invests his savings in beautiful Kaimuki.

With the coming of Uncle Sam to Pearl Harbor, the opening of the Panama Canal and the general development that is bound to follow a careful realty investment is bound to be worth many a sacrifice.

BUYING CATTLE IN MISSOURI FOR RANCHES ON HAWAII

KANSAS CITY, October 4.—You wouldn't have to be a clairvoyant to say to some of the aristocratic cattle of the American Royal:

"There's a long journey ahead of you. You're going over the sea."

The purchase of pure-bred stock by Robert Hind and A. W. Carter, ranchmen of Hawaii, will total nearly $10,000 before the show week is over tomorrow. Mr. Carter owns three hundred and fifty thousand acres of the Pacific island, which is stocked with twenty-six thousand head of cattle. Mr. Hind's possessions consists of forty thousand acres and twenty-seven thousand head.

"The pure-bred movement is just as prominent in Hawaii as in America," Mr. Hind said this morning. "When Mr. Carter and I concluded to set out for America for a new lot of bulls and breeding cows and farm implements, we timed our visit to take in the American Royal. We have bought a few head outside of the show, but the bulk of our purchases, which will run close to $15,000, will be made right here in Kansas City. We are buying Herefords principally as they seem to thrive better than other breeds in Hawaii.

"Meat prices on the island? Oh, there is little difference from prices in America. We have a much different system, however. Hawaii has no packing plants. Each ranch has its slaughter-house and the meat is distributed direct to the butchers. Enough corn is raised on the island to fatten our fine stock. The caretakers of our stock are Hawaiians, Japanese and Chinese."

CHARLES MAY SENTENCED FOR EMBEZZLEMENT

(Special to The Star.)

HILO, November 12.—Charles May, manager of the Hilo Steam Laundry Company and formerly a resident of Honolulu and in the same business in that city, was arrested last Thursday on a charge of embezzlement. He was taken before Judge Andrews in the District Court for trial and entered a plea of guilty on two counts, both involving less than $5. Sentence was postponed at the time.

It appears that the total of May's embezzlement will reach to a figure largely in excess of $100, the exact amount being unknown at present. His habit was to collect bills and fail to turn in the money; and it is said that in paying the employees of the concern the amounts entered on the books were in excess of what was received by the employees. May came to this city with good recommendations from Honolulu and did good work at first. He was discharged by the local company and even after that it is stated, he went on collecting, retaining the money thus obtained for his own purposes.

On Saturday morning May was sentenced to one month in jail on the first count and two months on the second. It is likely that other charges against him will be pressed.

DELAYED BY A SUSPICIOUS CASE

A case of suspicious sickness which at first was thought to be small created considerable disappointment among the passengers on the transport Sheridan which arrived in port shortly before six o'clock on Saturday evening.

At that time there was a large number of residents and naval and military officers on the wharf awaiting the arrival of the transport, then lying just outside, but as the minutes fled without the transport making any move towards entering various stories were circulated to account for the delay. It was seven-thirty before the Health officers decided that there was no grounds for immediate danger, provided precautions were taken, and the vessel was permitted to berth at the Oceanic wharf. All through passengers were confined to the ship, excepting those in the first and second classes and no one from Honolulu was permitted to board the vessel.

Altogether there were 911 passengers on the Sheridan, 194 of whom are for Honolulu, 708 for Manila and the balance, 69, for Guam.

Rear Admiral Goodrich, who is proceeding to Manila, came on the Sheridan and spent yesterday and today renewing acquaintances.

Coaling operations were carried on yesterday and by four o'clock in the afternoon six hundred tons of coal had been stowed on board. The Sheridan will leave this afternoon for Guam and Manila.

Through the Bank of Hawaii, a deal was effected Saturday whereby C. H. Raven and E. A. Jacobson acquired all interest in the Union Pacific Transfer Company, doing business on King street, near the Young Hotel. Former Manager Scroggy retires from the business.

Third Lieutenant of Engineers H. B. Robinson, of the revenue cutter Thetis, has been ordered to report to the president of a subboard on the Thetis in Honolulu harbor for examination for promotion. Captain Cochran and Lieutenant of Engineers Shedy will compose the board.

BIG NEW CONTEST OF DEMOCRATS HAS LOCAL END

Democratic politicians here are beginning to foresee a warm contest in the next Democratic convention over the delegates to the National convention, which will nominate the candidate for President for the campaign of 1912. Not since the time when the party was captured here for W. R. Hearst, has there been much interest. Now, as all over the states, the Democrats have awakened to the fact that a contest is on for the party's nomination, such as it has not seen since Bryan took the saddle.

The results in New York, New Jersey, Indiana, Ohio and Massachusetts give the Democratic party four or five men who all loom up, in the opinion of their supporters, as of presidential size. Already the reports from these various states tell of plans to capture the next nomination, and hence the local Democrats are seeing a warm scrap in sight for the half dozen delegates from here. It is remembered that in one Democratic national convention Hawaii's little vote was enough to turn the majority, for Bryan and sixteen to one.

The rivals for the nomination are little known among the people here. But in the next two years, they will be before the country all the time.

GAMBLING & EMBEZZLEMENT.

Jose de Ponte Ferraje pleaded guilty before Judge Cooper this morning to a charge of having embezzled on May 1, last, the sum of $37, the property of George C. Beckley, Jr. He was sentenced to six months imprisonment with costs. Ferraje also pleaded guilty to having been present at a gambling game. In this case sentence was suspended for thirteen months.
